Goodbye...

We send our heartfelt farewell to former CSAG president Teri Atkins Brown. Teri and her husband will be leaving Colorado, home for 17 years, and heading to Tennessee. We thank Teri and her husband for all their hard work and dedication over the years. Teri juried many of our art shows: members, regional and the Denver Capitol art exhibit. She brought in many wonderful artists to show and demo their work and techniques. We will miss you Teri and wish you all the best and much success in your future!

To continue following her work visit her websites at: www.artspheres.com

Shout out to

Chad Keith who was interviewed by FOX news at the NoHound UnHomed Art Auction at MAC on August 26, 2017.

Kathy Parks-Jackson & Chad Keith were invited by Destination Services to participate in a golf event dinner of live painting of the 18th hole at the Broadmoor.

Past demos

September

Tuesday, September 26th, 2017

We had another great meeting in September. Sheary Clough Suiter demoed some of her awesome en-caustics and Matt Hane with Rocky Mountain Insight led a mindfully, calming meditation session.

August

Tuesday, August 29th, 2017

Meghan Connelly, Peak School of Dance instructor and students performed. Free form dance exercises included “painting” and “negative space” among performances of ballet, tap, and hip hop.

“Hollywood” and his apprentice put on their own show. Hollywood shared his talents, processes and intricacies of creating the tattoo. We also learned everything you ever wanted to know about tattooing you would be amazed at what a surgical process this actually is and the cleanliness and thoughtfulness involved in producing a tattoo.

July

Tuesday, July 25th, 2017

We enjoyed our first ice cream social and paint the artist FUNdraiser. Thank you Gold Hill Mesa for the ice cream! We also enjoyed a marital arts demonstration and some live music. Our Paint the artist featured Chad or Carol. Many thanks to their willingness to get messy.
