2016 CSAG Member's Show

*Our Longtime advisor and past president,
Eve Buchanan, has recently been hospitalized and would appreciate your prayers and well wishes via mail, text or facebook. Get Well Soon Eve!!!*

We are excited to announce our 2016 CSAG members autumn show at Gold Hill Mesa Gallery. Artwork was accepted on September 14th.

We are SO excited to see our artists work in this show! We kept the cost minimal so CSAG can fill the walls of this new CSAG venue.

This is not a juried or prized show, it is a selling venue made possible by CSAG and Gold Hill Mesa.

One of your benefits for joining the CSAG is the ability to participate in this wonderful members show. It is a great venue, nice layout, lots of hanging space with a nice reception provided by the Gold Hill Gallery.

We wish to express our gratitude to curator Carol Naylor and the Gold Hill Mesa venue for this opportunity.

Take down will be November 8th from 11 am to 1 pm. We would love another volunteer or two for our out-take date. If you can assist please contact Karen Standridge.

Reception

Join us for our reception!

Thursday, October 6th from 5 to 7 pm.
Please bring your friends for some great, live music, light appetizers and drinks.

sneak peek demos

Photographer Michael Pach

Our September 27th demo features Mike Pach, owner of 3 Peaks Photography & Design. Mike is an award-winning photographer with more than 30 years of experience in photography. He was just nominated by the Pikes Peak Art Council for art show of the year, "Same tree different day." He is the founder of the Colorado Photography Learning Group and has been teaching photography and Photoshop classes since 2007.

He is an avid outdoors man who is knowledgeable of many of the best locations for photography in Colorado. Mike is a member of Canon Professional Services and Professional Photographers of America. He has lived in Colorado since 1996 and enjoys showing people the best of what Colorado has to offer. Mike also hosts The Photo Show and 3rd Groove on KCMJ 93.9

Artist Reveille Kennedy

Our October 25th demo features Reveille Kennedy. Reveille grew up in Pueblo, Colorado and painted with old enamels and created with the wood, left-over from her father's building projects. She was intrigued by the flamboyant colors in bugs and flowers, and the running together of the paints. She ruined many uncleaned brushes. Reveille was in the first class to graduate from South High School in 1960 and attended two years at Pueblo Jr. College. She has taken many workshops and classes around the world and her paintings hang in England, Scotland, Japan and around the US. Reveille is currently teaching out of her house/studio, Sheppard Art Institute, and at Sangre de Cristo Arts Center. She is the past president of Pike's Peak Watercolor Society.

guild news

We are excited to announce that we have a few new members this summer. Thank you to all who have recently joined!

Our nomination forms are also due please bring your nominations forms that were emailed this month. And consider stepping up to help out in one of our officer positions or as a leader for next year. In the last month we have had NO members step up to assist next year so far. Let's turn this around! Positions open include secretary, president, refreshment committee, show chairman, membership team and publicity chairman. Training is provided.

We are thrilled to announce we have located a new treasurer that will be working with Kathleen Murray our current club treasurer in the next few weeks to transfer the financial reigns of the CSAG. Kathleen recently moved to California and it has been a pleasure to have worked with her over the last year. Thank You Kathleen! Pat Lockhart our former nonprofit specialist is now CSAG Treasurer for 2017. Let's give a big welcome to Pat for stepping up to officially assist us in our citywide art guild!

During our CSAG elections last night, we elected a new president, Carol Naylor. Thank you for accepting the position Carol!!! The new president will not assume duties until January due to existing commitments. Teri Brown will continue to represent the art guild as president until January. Our Vice President for 2017 is Kathy Jackson, our secretary position remains open, treasurer: Pat Lockhart, web-master: Joel Sundquist, demo chairmen: Chad Keith, graphics helpers: Chad Keith and Mona Hodge, membership outreach chairmen: Darlene Hudson, membership database assistant: Pat Lockhart, newsletter editor: Diana Cordaro, newsletter assistant and workshop chairman: Teri Brown and distribution is handled by Joan Bennett.
